ACCOUNT OF SHAMROCKNEW ALLOY HAS BEEN USED FOR THE HULL.Dimensions of the Flier That is to Compete for the American Cup—Under Water Surface Smooth.LONDON, June 15.—The Yachting World today says: Further unexpected difficulties have been met in the construction of the Shamrock, and, though none of them will permanently affect the boat, they have delayed the work so that her launch is impossible before the last day of the month, and some modifications of the arrangements of the sailing trials have been rendered necessary by the delay in her construction.
When she is launched she will be taken to Fay's yard, at Southampton, to be finished there. All her standing and running gear is completed, and it is expected that, once launched and her masters stepped, her outfit will be finished in a day or two.LONDON, June 16.—The Times says this morning: The hull of the Shamrock is made of a new alloy of extreme lightness and strength. Nothing could be smoother than the underwater surface it makes. The yacht is unlike the later challengers in many respects, but the model, except in the matter of draught, is largely that of the fifty-two rater Saint, though it embodies much of what was successful in the Albatross.
The following are her dimensions: Length over all, 125 feet; length on load water line, 89 feet; beam, 22 feet; length from bowsprit end to main boom end, 150 feet; her draught of 19 feet 9 inches and the height from deck level to topmasthead, is 135 feet.It is improbable that she will race on this side of the Atlantic.OVERSTUDY.Long continued concentration of the mind weakens the nerve forces and wastes the vitality, so that disease finds an easy victim. Dr. Miles' Nervine renews the wasted strength and builds up the worn out nerves. "I studied too hard at school and when my nervous system gave way I was attacked by St. Vitus' dance. I was in an awful condition and had very little control of my body. Home physicians could give me no help so I began taking Dr. Miles' Nervine. It helped me from the start and after using it a few months my health was restored."

KAMEHAMEHA.Some Creditable Essays—Closing Address by Mr. Kincaid on the Power of a Purpose—Special Songs.Commencement exercises were held at Kamehameha School for Girls last evening. A crowded hall of city people thoroughly enjoyed the program.
The graduating class consisted of Misses Maria Ellen Maby, Louise Aoe Wongkong, Jane Nahiwa and Ellen Rose Pearce. On the platform with the class were the faculty and the trustees of the Bishop estate.The essays read were all excellent, reflecting much credit upon the young ladies and the school. They were:
"A Girl at Home," by Miss Pearce;
"A Girl in Society," by Miss Nahiwa;
"A Girl at Play," by Miss Wongkong;
"A Girl at School," by Miss Maby.
The latter was ill and her paper was read by Miss Desha.There was some splendid singing during the evening. The first chorus was Newcomb's Hawaiian hymn, dedicated to Mrs. Bishop. Another was a song eulogizing Kaulani and dedicated by the writer, Miss Cordelia Clymer, to Kamehameha School for Girls. The class song, also by Miss Clymer, was presented by the graduates. In the program were a number of other part songs. Miss Violet Lima's piano playing was also a feature.Rev. Wm. M. Kincaid delivered the address of the day. His subject was "The power of a purpose." It was a forceful treatment, delivered in great earnestness and made a deep impression upon all present.The hall and adjoining rooms were handsomely decorated for the occasion. Over the platform was the moto of the school. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might."The program closed shortly before 10 o'clock with the call of the school.A GRACIOUS ACT.

Kapiolani's Grateful Remembrance of the Cruiser Charleston.

Among many charming and gracious acts of the late Queen Dowager Kapiolani none was more graciously conceived or pleasingly performed than her presentation of a beautiful American flag to the United States Cruiser Charleston about a year ago.It was the Charleston that brought the remains of King Kalakaua from San Francisco. She was never again in Hawaiian waters until the end of May, 1898, when on her way to Manila. The Queen Dowager took the occasion to carry out a long cherished wish to give expression to the grateful remembrance in which she held the Charleston.The flag was a most handsome one, of the very finest material and made under the personal direction of the Queen Dowager herself. It was enclosed in a splendid covered koo calabash of ancient manufacture. The presentation was made by Prince David on behalf of Kapiolani. It was received by Captain Glass, the commandant of the Charleston. The ceremony took place on the deck of the Charleston on the morning of June 2, 1898.4th of July!We are receiving orders now for our
